15. If Bidder is a business entity, whether Bidder is listed as "active" by the Wyoming Secretary of State
16. If Bidder is a business entity, how long the business entity has been active
17. Interview – a CNCHD agent(s), Building Committee or the Natrona County Health Board (the "Board") may interview one or more of the bidders

PROPOSAL PROCEDURE. Following is the general process regarding proposals:

1. The Board retains its right to reject a proposal(s) in whole or part, waive technicalities, and accept the proposal it determines is in the County's best interest.
2. The Board will consider accepting a proposal at one of its meetings based on recommendations by the Building Committee. Regular CNCHD meetings are generally held on the third Thursday of each month.
3. If the Board approves accepting a proposal, it will contingently award the contract to the successful bidder. The bidder must execute and return the contract to CNCHD within 15 days of the contract postmark. If the Bidder fails to return the contract by the deadline, the Board may rescind its contingent award and select a different proposal.

GENERAL.

1. Once the Bidder submits a proposal to CNCHD, the proposal, along with all of its attachments and enclosures, becomes the property of CNCHD and will not be returned to the Bidder.

2. Once the Bidder submits a proposal to CNCHD, the proposal and all of its attachments and enclosures become a public record.
3. All submitted proposals will be valid for 30 days, including the date the proposals were opened.
4. CNCHD does not waive and specifically retains all immunity provided by the Wyoming Governmental Claims Act, Wyo. Stat. §§ 1-39-101, et. seq., and all other immunities provided by law.
5. The laws of the State of Wyoming govern the interpretation and enforcement of this RFP. The courts in the State of Wyoming have jurisdiction over this RFP. A court in Natrona County, Wyoming, is the proper venue for any legal action arising from this RFP.
6. Any contract arising from this RFP is contingent upon adequately allocating funds to CNCHD for Services. CNCHD may rescind its contingent award or terminate any contract without penalty if such funds are not allocated. CNCHD will not be liable for any future payment or alleged damage resulting from rescinding a contingent award or terminating a contract. CNCHD will not claim funds unavailable to acquire similar services from a third party.
7. The bidder will be an independent contractor solely responsible for its debts and other liabilities. The bidder will also be solely responsible for any taxes and costs resulting from its performance of Services, including, but not limited to, federal and social security taxes, workers' compensation, and unemployment insurance.
- 8. Bidder must be aware of and comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws in its performance of Services
